Guidelines for Photography Sessions

Professional photographers must obtain written permission in advance. All subjects must purchase admission (Photographers receive complimentary admission.)

- Professional photography requires advance approval.
- Photography is permitted in approved public areas only.
- Sessions may not interfere with the experience of other guests.
- Locations are available on a non-exclusive basis.
- A staff escort is required for sessions scheduled outside of public hours.
- Billings Farm & Museum does not provide photographers.

Photography sessions are scheduled in one-hour increments with a one-hour minimum. Groups larger than eight people, weddings, and special events require separate pricing and arrangements.
During open hours, which change season to season:

- 1 hour photo shoot with 1-2 subjects: No Site Fee
- 1 hour+ and/or with 3 or more subjects: $75 per Hour

Outside of our open hours:

- All shoots: $100 per Hour

Submit completed forms to info@billingsfarm.org at least 72 hours before your requested session date.
Wait for confirmation from Billings Farm & Museum. Sessions are not considered booked until all forms have been received, application fees process, and a confirmation email issued.
