

2026 Motorcoach & Organizational Groups

Welcome to Billings Farm & Museum

Woodstock, VT

Our Mission: Billings Farm & Museum is dedicated to growing a culture of care and connection to land, food, and community through immersive experiences and shared stories at our working Vermont dairy farm.

Our Story: Established in 1871 as a model dairy farm, Billings Farm is now owned and operated by The Woodstock Foundation, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) institution, continuing our legacy of excellence in sustainable agriculture and agricultural education.

2026 Group Admission Rates

$19 per person for groups of 15 or more with advance reservations.

What's Included:

- Self-guided tour of our historic working dairy farm.
- Access to all museum exhibits.
- Participation in any scheduled non-fee programs.
- Visit our Jersey cows, draft horses, sheep, goats, and chickens.
- Exploration of our 1890 Farmhouse.

Motorcoach Arrival Procedures

Billings Farm & Museum Visitor Center is located at 23 Elm Street, Woodstock, VT. It is a RIGHT turn into the Visitor Center parking lot. Please have the driver pull up in front of the Visitor Center.

Running late OR early? We want (and need) to know! Please NO early bird arrivals! We open at 10AM – plan accordingly!

Upon Arrival:

- Please keep your group on the bus until you are greeted by a member of our staff.
- Our team will provide an overview of the site and any pertinent site information.

For Drivers:

- Bus parking area is across from the Visitor Center in our auxiliary lot.
- NO IDLING permitted at Visitor Center or bus parking lot – this is Vermont law!
- We appreciate your cooperation in keeping our farm air quality pristine.
